Sorry, just got back.

I am not insane, yet!!! There is always chocolate. Haha. I am one of the very few people that have remote access to the lab and the Feds. Next Friday, I have to head to Fall River Superior DA's Office to do Out Service training for the ADAs about Drug Analysis and Questioning a chemist, so coordinating that is taking time.

[REDACTED] When the cert is ready I will email to you.

[REDACTED] Sorry, got confused with another case for Norfolk. I will take a look at the questions tonight and give you my response based on this case.(I did this for Debi's case and seem to work.) D/C is usually clueless.

Annie

Annie,

First [REDACTED] -- yes! I will gladly take that from you. I thought the amount of coke was so small that Randolph didn't submit anything.

Second, my [REDACTED] case doesn't have an Rx. It's 9 bags of heroin and 4 bags of coke. It appears you guys tested a representative 1 bag of each -- I need to insert a couple questions so that can be explained -- any suggestions? Basically, something that would allow you to explain testing 1 bag rather than all.

Lastly, were you really working at 8pm last night? You chemists are crazy!

Thanks!
Craig

I will coordinate with Dan. Thurs at 9 sounds good. Keep me posted.

I will take a closer look at the questions tomorrow, when I get back from Bristol Superior. Since this is case dealt with Rx, it is less complex than powders.

Also, on a side note: I did a Randolph case with a small amount of cocaine today and defendant's name was [REDACTED] Out of curiosity, any relations to the Weymouth case?

Annie,

It looks like the [REDACTED] trial will be going to trial next week afterall. I will be picking a jury on Tuesday. I have several witnesses in this case that will take up Wednesday so I'm thinking the best time for you would be 9am Thursday. Is that a possibility for you? I also summonsed Daniel Renczkowski and he'd go on after you.

Attached are some sample questions for this case I believe taken from samples you sent me before. Does it look okay? Please let me know if I should be asking things differently.

I will email/call you Tuesday after picking the jury to confirm with you that the trial started and then we can discuss your time for testimony. I can be flexible if you have other places to be.

Thanks!
Craig
